

A wide-angle photograph of a lush green field, possibly a wheat or corn field, stretching to the horizon. The sky is filled with large, billowing white and grey clouds, with a hint of blue visible between them. The overall mood is serene and expansive.

I will come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, there you may be also. (John 14:3)

What happens when you die?

When ya gone ya gone, make the most of your life on earth.

I don't believe in either (heaven or hell) actually, I can't force myself to...its just entirely illogical.

We're all in the matrix and the afterlife is when we die our brains get uploaded into another simulation. That's what I hope for.

I'm honestly not sure, I guess I want to believe in something, sometimes I look up at the sky and think that the people I've lost are looking down or whatever...I turn to heaven when things go bad.

REAL

- John 14:1-3
- I Peter 1:3-5
- Matthew 25:31-34
- Matthew 5:11-12

I regard the brain as a computer which will stop working when its components fail. There is no heaven or afterlife for broken down computers; that is a fairy story for people afraid of the dark.

What We Need To Know About

HEAVEN

REAL

AWESOME

- Rest
- No Sorrow
- No Pain
- No Death

What We Need To Know About

HEAVEN

REAL

AWESOME

ACCESSIBLE

What We Need To Know About

HEAVEN